

Commission Meeting
Monday, September 14, 2015
Oak Harbor City Hall, upstairs conference room

---

In Attendance:

Chair: Skip Pohtilla; Commissioners: Rick Lawler, KC Pohtilla, Kit Christopherson, John Pendleton; Kathryn Martinez

Staff: Cac Kamak

- Meeting Notes – The meeting notes from the August 2015 meeting were approved.
- Public Comment – No comments
- Farmer’s Market Site – Cac provided an update on the project. Engineering has done a site analysis on the corner and determined that 5 panels on the current fence along SR 20 will likely have a visibility issue. Mentioned meeting with Brian Hunt of the school district and discussing the removal of these panels to help with the visibility and also bringing prominence to the sculpture. Skip also mentioned meeting with engineering and the school district and discussing the corner. Can added that the artist is reviewing the contract and hopes to move it forward in Nov/Dec.
- Driftwood Day – The commission felt that the attendance for this year’s Driftwood Day was less than normal. The commission discussed lack of signs and news coverage. The commission agreed to work on marketing the event more for next year. Commissioner Pendleton recommended forming a subcommittee to work on it. The Commission thought that having the Driftwood Day after school started was a good idea. Ideas of incorporating music, DJ and local radio stations was also discussed.
- New Business – The Commission discussed the open positions on the Arts Commission and encouraged commissioners to look for potential candidates that could serve on the commission.
- Meeting adjourned.
