City Council Duties and Compensation

The Oak Harbor City Council is the legislative authority of the City of Oak Harbor. The City operates under a Mayor – Council form of government. The seven-member City Council serves as the legislative body of the City. The Council is responsible for setting policy, adopting the annual budget, adopting laws, determining the services to be provided and the funding levels for those services, and appointing citizens to its advisory boards and commissions.

The duties of a City Council Member will likely involve an average minimum commitment of 18 – 20 hours per month for preparation, participation, and attendance at various meetings and community activities. Beyond the broad duties previously mentioned, Council Member duties include, but are not limited to:

- Attendance is required at regular City Council meetings which are held on the first and third Tuesday evenings of each month with the exception of one meeting per month in July and August on the first Tuesday of these two months. Meetings begin at 6:00 p.m. and can run to 9:00 p.m. and occasionally later. From time to time, the Council or Mayor may call special Council meetings to handle City business. Attendance is also required at Council retreats.
- Council Members are expected to attend Monthly Workshop meetings as well, which have been held on the fourth Wednesday of every month. During the months of November and December, they meet on the third Wednesday of the month to accommodate the holidays. Council Members are also expected to serve on regional boards and commissions, and to represent the City Council at various community functions. These meetings and functions can occur before or during business hours and may also occur during the evening or weekend.
- Some travel is expected locally, regionally, and/or within the State of Washington, involving various organizations of which the City of Oak Harbor is a member. Council Members may also, at their discretion travel and attend training, education, and/or participate in other organizations at the local, regional, State, or in some instances, the national level. Travel, education, and training expenses for local, regional, State, and national activities are reimbursed in accordance with City policy applicable to all employees and City officials, subject to the budgetary limit set for each Council Member and for the City Council as a whole.

The monthly Council Member salary as of January 1, 2020 is $723.00 per month plus benefits for the Member only.

Interview Questions – July 14, 2020

Each candidate selected for an interview should come to the interview prepared to speak to the following questions:

1. Why do you want to serve on the City Council?
2. What experiences, talents or skills do you bring to the Council and community that you would like to highlight?
3. Are there any regional issues or forums in which you have a particular interest or expertise? (e.g. transportation, water supply, human services, water quality, fiscal management, solid waste, parks and open space, etc.)
4. Do you want to serve on the City Council because of a particular local issue on which you want to work, or are your interests more broadly distributed?

The Council may ask additional questions of candidates during the interview.
